I know, Martin Luther wrote some antisemitic things later in his life. But did you know he wrote this about learning Hebrew?

Just for kicks, Holy Language sponsored a contest for graphic artists to take a portrait of Luther and combine it with this quote. We had four entries for our first contest, posted them on Facebook, and let our fans decide which they liked best. Joshua Shallenberger's entry won! See all four entries and like your favourite here.

Happy news! There's a ton of new reference works on the Resources page, including a transliterated Hebrew English Bible, vocabulary sheets with most frequently used Hebrew words, Mishnah in Hebrew and English, English Babylonian Talmud, Aramaic English Zohar, Life and Times of Jesus the Messiah by Alfred Edersheim, and a university level Hebrew grammar! We're reading Deuteronomy 1 for Hebrew Chapters this week. Watch and share the trailer here, and join me for the whole study here!

Meet Michael, one of our newest Hebrew students. Here's his story.

My parents both immigrated from Nicaragua, Central America in the fifties. My mother is by bloodline of Sephardic Jewish descent. Her great grandfather traces back to Spain, his surname being Guzman. Although my mother was not a practicing Jew, she did recognize her Jewish heritage. My father's background is a little more muddled. His DNA traces to eastern Europe but he carried his mother's maiden name, Fernandez, a name identified etymologically as Sephardic. He never knew his father. Me, well I was born in '65 in California. My family and I moved to Alaska in the early 70's where I grew up until I moved to AZ on my own in the mid 80's.

My testimony: I am a walking miracle of transformation attesting the power of HaShem through Yeshua. I started my young adulthood as a self absorbed partying playboy. I then became hopelessly addicted to drugs, alcohol, sex and porn I felt lost and hopeless. A Christian guy I met explained the message of salvation to which I responded. I began walking with Messiah but more from a gentile Christian point of reference. After a few years, I began to hunger for deeper understanding and I was wrestling with my Jewishness and how this factored into my relationship with Christianity. I felt incomplete and that there had to be more than what the Christian world was teaching (all grace, no Torah, no room to be Jewish). Then I started finding men like Michael Rood, Sid Roth, Jonathon Bernis and others on the web. Then I understood how the Christian world was incomplete and confused and I came to enthusiastically embrace Messianic Judaism. Now I see how The Holy One is restoring the Bride of Messiah to its proper place back into the tent of David! Back to its Hebrew foundation!

Well after a couple stages into your program and I must tell you how delighted I am! I love the in-depth teaching about the letters and your commentary as well. Thank you so very much for the effort placed into the production of the program it is nothing less than EXCELLENT! I feel every disciple of Messiah Yeshua should take your course!

I now work devotedly to proclaim the Jewish Messiah to both Jew and Gentile. And I encourage gentile believers to come back to their Hebrew roots and the beauty of Torah. As you know however it not easy persuading gentiles who have been taught for hundreds of years that Torah is bondage, and has been done away with. Well, we'll keep after it!

I love hearing from my students and sharing your stories! Could I share your story, too? Just reply and tell me how you started following Yeshua and studying Hebrew, and then how you found us and how it's all going! Attach a picture of yourself, and I'll share it with the tribe. Don't do it for you, do it because your story glorifies God! Thank you!
