

We have some new additions to the family! Just this last week I found a copy of the 1901 Delitzsch Hebrew-English New Testament and added it in colour, black and white, and text versions to the Library page at holylanguage.com, alongside our 1886 Zalkinson and 1817 London Jews Society versions. This will be especially useful for you because it's the Delitzsch version that we read in Hebrew Quest! Download your free copy here.

I also just added two new goodies to the Resources page of holylanguage.com - a Hebrew-English interlinear New Testament, and a link to a golden little vocabulary listing the most frequently occurring words in the Hebrew Bible. Get those two treasures here!

Remember the new map feature I told you about last week, where you can find other students in your area? It's turning into a fun and very useful tool!

But here's the problem. I don't have time to make these hundreds of pins! That's where you come in. I need some volunteers who will help me make these initial pins, and then check in to an email account every couple days and update the map with any new pins.

If you'd like to help our students all around the world find each other, please reply to this email, and I'll give you some simple instructions that will get you started on the project. Thank you so much.

We're reading Deuteronomy 11 and 12 in Torah Portion Re'eh for Hebrew Chapters this week. Watch and share the trailer here, and join me for the whole study here!

Meet Simon, one of our Dutch Hebrew students.

I am a pastor of an evangelical church in the Netherlands, Enkhuizen and Grootebroek. I'm married to Wilma, with four children and ten grandchildren. Before I was a pastor I worked 30 years as a policeman in various positions. During that time I preached in our church. Eventually I did a Bachelor's degree in theology. With great pleasure and curiosity, I followed all the boxes.

As a follower of our Lord Jesus, I love the Bible. Especially the Tanakh, the Old Testament. On several occasions I have tried to learn Hebrew. On my bachelor's a little I managed. I had a good grade on my final list, but it is quickly sunk again. Then I tried to follow through an institute in Jerusalem, online classes once but that did not work and was indeed very expensive. Now I'm like a child beginning again, as we're told to do in Izzy's first lesson, and that pleases me. I write lines full of Alephs, Bets and so on. I have fun now and hope to keep going. I am convinced that a good knowledge of Hebrew will give me a deeper understanding of the Scriptures. And Jesus is the Word made flesh, so also it gives me a deeper relationship with Him.

The picture was made in Jerusalem. I was there several times. I am a traveller, so I have been in North and South America, Canada, Africa, India and of course several times in the Holy Land.

I give you all my warmest greeting in the name of our Lord Jesus.

I love hearing from my students and sharing your stories! Could I share your story, too? Just reply and tell me how you started following Yeshua and studying Hebrew, and then how you found us and how it's all going! Attach a picture of yourself, and I'll share it with the tribe. Don't do it for you, do it because your story glorifies God! Thank you!
