

This made me laugh and I thought you might get a kick out of it too. One of my Hebrew students, Jeromy Bilbrey, created it. My cranium is so big and white, I don't blame them for mistaking me for an alien!

You're smart!

You are very smart, and we value your opinion more than many gold and silver medals! Answer any or all of these five questions, and then hit Send.

1. What do you like about us and how we do things?

2. Have you had any negative experiences with us? (Be honest!)

I need your feedback. I really do.

Would you take a moment to answer five quick questions and give me your ideas and feedback here? Thank you!

The Creation of Man and Woman

<sup>1</sup>This is the account of heaven and earth when time when Yahweh Elohim made earth and heaven.

<sup>2</sup>Wild bushes and plants were not on the earth yet hadn't sent rain on the earth. Also, there was no one:
underground water would come up from the earth an
of the ground.

<sup>3</sup>Then Yahweh Elohim formed the man from the d the breath of life into his nostrils. The man became :

<sup>4</sup>Yahweh Elohim planted a garden in Eden, in the the man whom he had formed. <sup>5</sup>Yahweh Elohim mad

the ground. These tree their fruit was good to tree of the knowledge

the middle of the gard

<sup>6</sup>A river flowed from Outside the garden it

<sup>7</sup>The name of the first

So Elohim created humans in his image.
In the image of Elohim
he created them.

I'm sure you've seen some of the translations that have come out in recent years that retain the original Hebrew pronunciation of Hebrew names, with Dr. David Stern's Complete Jewish Bible being the most popular. Here's a mainstream one I thought you'd like - the Names of God Bible edited by Ann Spangler. Here's what Amazon says about it:

One of the best ways to get to know God on a deeper level is to know the names and titles both he and his people give to him. Now the bestselling author of Praying the Names of God reveals the richness of God's character and love found in his names. The Names of God Bible restores more than 10,000 occurrences of specific names of God - like Yahweh, El Shadday, El Elyon, and Adonay - to help readers discover the Hebrew names of God within the biblical text, understand the meaning and significance of each name, and encounter God in a new way through prayers, promises, and devotional readings.

I think this is neat for two reasons. Firstly, this is mainstream! It excites me to see the glimmerings of a Hebrew renaissance in the body of Christ like this. Secondly, this is exactly what we're doing through Hebrew Quest! We take our students through a heart-pounding journey of eleven full pages of the Hebrew names of God and Messiah.

Buy a copy on Amazon here, read more about it here, and watch a video about it here or at the bottom of this email. And if you haven't already done so, start your Hebrew Quest here.

We're reading Deuteronomy 31 in Torah Portion Vayelech for Hebrew Chapters this week. In this episode I'll show you three concrete objects that picture breaking a covenant relationship, how to figure out your mission in life, and the dangers of prosperity from three synonyms for getting fat.

Watch and share the trailer here, and join me for the whole study here!

Meet Henry, one of our Hebrew students in Africa. Here's a little note from him that I thought provides some healthy balance for us wild Hebrew enthusiasts.

A friend requested that I recommend a center where he could learn Hebrew and I was subsequently drawn to introduce him to holylanguage.com.

As a descendant of God, it's natural for me to be interested in Hebrew; for my native language Igbo was derived from Hebrew and consequently has a lot of similarities that makes me feel at home.

Learning Hebrew roots is a very good thing indeed but a lot of people think that it's the only language of God. If that is so then why does he still communicate to people in English, French, Dutch etc. Even those that learn Hebrew roots have testified that YAH does talk to them in a language other than Hebrew. Didn't the RUACH HA KODESH authorize the Apostles during Shavuot to speak other people's languages calling them to repentance?

If we are not careful our passion for Hebrew language can become a stumbling block which hinders us from having a closer relationship with God. The creature should never take the place of the Creator.
